DATES FOR THE ASSEMBLIES FIXED-PREPARING FOR WEDDINGS-OTHER MATTERS

OF INTEREST. In the week which has elapsed since the Horse Show ended many things of interest to Brooklyn ocial circles have occurred. The assemblies have been provided for, a number of marriages have elebrated, the first of the coming-out receptions has been held, engagements have been announced and others hinted at, and a swing has been given to the wheels which will keep them moving antil the beginning of Lent compels a rest. Some until the beginning of Lent compels a rest. Some of the younger people had begun to think there was a chance that there would be no assemblies this season, but now they may stop thinking about it. They will be held, and they are in charge of a Committee which will leave no stone unturned to secure their complete success. This committee to eists of W. S. P. Prentice, Wyllys Terry, Charles E. HE HAS FITS FOR A LIVING.

DANIEL EVANS CAN HAVE THEM IN JAIL NOW IF HE WANTS TO, BUT THERE WILL NOT BE ANY MONEY IN IT.

Brooklyn detectives say that Daniel Evans, nineteen years old, with no home, is the greatest "fit fakir" they have met professionally in the course of ing to "take fits," they say, with a regularity and these social gatherings. His lecture on "Her Royal Highness, Woman," was in his pleasantest vein sympathetic persons, but which at last led him into and was warmly applauded. jall, where to-day he languishes under the super-vision of a "minion of the law," who nervously jail, where to-day he languishes under the supervision of a "minion of the law," who nervously watches Daniel Evans in case he should "take a fit" there.

Evans is the young man who has been visiting hotels and churches, where he had fits and fits and fits and fits. After one fit he would have a collection taken up for his benefit, and then he would seek another field and have another fit. He worked this novel scheme in various places in New-York City and Brooklyn, in the former city at the Fifth Avenue-Hotel, in the latter at the St. George Hotel, and at other-places. After each simulated fit Evans would collect money to pay his fare to Fresno, Cal. "where his poor old father lived." He did this at the St. George a few weeks ago. He went to the Grace Methodist Episcopal Church, Seventh-ave, and St. John's Place, and had a fit and a collection in the middle of the Sunday vending services. Last Sunday night he went to the First Reformed Church, Seventh-ave, and Carroll-st., and had a fit there. The Rev. Dr. James M. Farrar, however, thought that Evans was having fits for value received, and that his scheme was a fraudulent one, to gain money and sympathy. So, after Evans had called at the "Dutch Arms," a club connected with the church, Dr. Farrar informed Detectives Reynolds and Weiser, who arrested young Evans there yeaterday afternoon.

Daniel Evans has been in custody before, and was recently at the Homoeopathic Hospital, where the doctors soon found that he was shamming fits.

AT THE BROOKLYN THEATRES.

Playgoers will remember the excellent attendance during past seasons at productions of "Jim the Penman." They have now a double treat to an-Penman. They have now it ticipate in the impending production of "A Social Highwayman." As in the former plays, a scamp is its hero, who, despite moral convictions and aesthetic scruples, is a fellow of such winning person ality that he gains the sympathies of the audienas quickly and as thoroughly as he does the friends upon whom he practises his depredations. His valet's self-sacrificing loyalty in evil-doing, no less than in good service, also compels unwilling admiration. played by E. M. Holland, whose fine characteriza tion made the detective in "Jim the Penman" famous, while his younger brother Joseph plays the These two artists have been surrounded by their manager, Richard Mansfield, with a cast of great strength, specially selected from his own stock company. "A Social Highwayman" will be played at the Park Theatre this week, with a spe-cial matines on Thanksgiving Day. The regular Wednesday and Saturday matinees will be given, as cial matinee on Thanksgiving Day. The regular Wednesday and Saturday matinees will be given, as usual.

To-morrow evening E. H. Sothern will begin his ninth annual engagement in this city at the Columbia Theatre, presenting what has been the greatest success and novelty of the present season in New-York, the dramatization of Anthony Hope's novel. "The Prisoner of Zenda," made by Edward Rose in collaboration with the author. Those who have leoked upon him simply as a comedian have been forced to admit after seeing this, his last impersonation, that Mr. Sothern is fully entitled to be considered as a romantic actor in the serious as well as the comedy phases of such a position. The point which will be of main interest is the fact that in no particular, either as to scenery or company, will there be the slightest variation from the performance as it was given during the New-York run at the Lyceum Theatre. The engagement here is for one week only, with Wednesday and Saturday matinees. An extra performance will be given on Thursday, Thanksgiving Day.

From his successful engagement at the Columbia Theatre Francis Wilson brings his latest comic opera success, "The Chieftain," the music of which is by Sir Arthur Sullivan and the libretto by F. C. Burnand, to the Amphion for the week beginning Monday night, where the comedian will present the opera precisely as during his engagement at Abbey's Theatre, New-York, where the opera had its first American presentation last September. In addition to his usual one on Saturday, Mr. Wilson will give a special matinee on Thanksgiving Day.

INSTITUTE READING CIRCLES TO BE FORMED

Institute of Arts and Sciences has announced that seven reading circles will be formed for the season. The circles will be conducted by Thomas G. Shearman, Hermann H. B. Meyer, Mrs. Franklin W. Hooper, Mrs. Lucy T. Lewis, John Melville, Charles W. Lyon and Edward Southworth Hawes. Miss Isabel Camp is the chairman of the Committee on Reading Circles.

THE MEMORIAL HOSPITAL RECEPTION. The managers of the Memorial Hospital for tion in the new hospital building at Classon and St. Mark's aves, on Tuesday and Wednesday from 2 until 10 o'clock p. m. Guests will be permitted to inspect the rooms in the building. On Tuesday even-Ing the Rev. Dr. T. B. McLeod and the Rev. Dr. J. T. Duryea, Dr. Jennie de la M. Lozier and Dr. M. Belle Brown are expected to speak; Vincent Fanelli, a young harpist, will pay, and other music will be furnished under the direction of Miss Ida Mollenhauer. The annual Thanksgiving offerings are usually received at this time, and gifts of groceries, vegetables and delicacies for the patients will be preceived during the week at the basement entrance to the hospital in Classon-ave.

A new organization which will be both social and athetic in its alms has just sprang up in Brooklyn. It is the Dyker Meadow Golf Cab. A handleap tournament for Thanksgiving Day is already under consideration by the members, among whom are some of the best golf players in the State. A meeting was held at the house of H. W. Mitchell, No. 666 Halsey-st., on Thursdny evening, at which the first steps were taken toward the formation of a writers club Henry E. Haydock was secretary of the meeting and Frank Lee Farnell, its chairman, said that the object of the society would be mutual help and entertainment. It is the plan of the leaders in the movement to secure rooms in a central locality which could be used for reading-rooms and parlors. A committee on organization consisting of Frank Lee Farnell, Henry E. Haydock, Mrs. J. Y. Chanler and Miss Mary Diefendorf was appointed to draw up a constitution to be presented at the next meeting to be held at Mr. Mitchell's house on December 2. The club will probably form with a membership of about fifty. Among the prime movers in the scheme are Mrs. M. E. Craigill, Clarence C. New, Mrs. S. V. Court, Mrs. E. A. Wilson, Miss H. F. Lovett, Mrs. Ruth Everett, Howard C. Ivies, J. Y. Chanler, Mrs. Clarence C. New, Mrs. S. H. Moore, Miss Augusta Kearney and Miss Violet Eytinge Mitchell.

FATHER AGAINST SON. PECULIAR SUITS ARISING FROM BUSINESS COM-

The determination of Henry Hamilton, a wealthy stage-owner and livery-stable keeper, at North Fifth-st., and Bedford-ave., to collect a judgment of $22,000 obtained against his son William Hamilton, has resulted, it is alleged, in Captain Michael O'Keefe, a wholesale liquor-dealer, instituting a foreclosure suit on a mortgage with interest amounting to $5,500, against the elder Hamilton. The proceedings were begun yesterday by Captain O'Keefe. The property involved in the suit is at The Brooklyn Yacht Club opened its new head-quarters on Tuesday evening. A musical and literary programme was given and a supper was streed. The rooms are at No. 5 Willoughby-st, and are prettily decorated with yachting flags and comblems.

A musical will be held in the parlors of the Brooklyn Club on Wednesday evening. Among the musicians who will appear are Miss Hilke, so-prano, and Harry Pepper, the tenor and ballad singer, who will give his "Twenty Minutes with a Composer."
